P5 Isabella - Writing The First Two Scenes of A Puppet-Show Drama Script:

Scene 1 - One day on an alien planet...

Alien Boss: Go murder the astronauts, Green!
Green Alien: Okay. But why?
Alien Boss: Because they killed Red Alien! Remember?
Green Alien: Oh yeah. I forgot that. Sorry boss.
Alien Boss: Okay, just go change into an astronaut suit.
Green Alien: Sure. Where is it boss?
Alien Boss: It's right behind you, dummy!
Green Alien: Oh. Ha-ha! Bye boss!

Green the alien hops into a rocket and flies to the astronauts' space station.

Scene 2 – On the space station...

Green Alien: I am finally here! That took a while! Hmm... I'm hungry! But, I need to wear this astronaut suit first. (He puts it on.)
Now I'm going on snack break! WHERE IS THE FOOD!?

Pink Astronaut: Oh! Welcome back Black!

Green Alien: GIVE ME FOOD!

Pink Astronaut: Okay Black. (The Pink Astronaut gives him some lunch.)

The Green Alien eats, then murders the Pink Astronaut and turns everything off.

Red Astronaut: Who turned everything off?! Now we have to do our tasks again!

Blue Astronaut: Oh no! Pink is dead!

Green Alien: Oh! Who did it?

Blue Astronaut: It wasn't me, so it had to be you! Yellow, call an emergency meeting!

Yellow Astro.: Okay!

Yellow presses the alarm button to call an emergency meeting.

P6 If My Friend Emigrated Abroad:

If my best friend emigrated abroad to Canada, I would be happy for her because she could have a big house. Canada's air is cleaner than Hong Kong's, so she could also be healthier there.

But I would be sad too, because I couldn't see her as often. Also, I would be worried about her, because things in Canada are very expensive and she will have to study in a new school, so she may be lonely.

P6 Tracy

If my best friend emigrated abroad to Japan, I would be quite jealous, but also proud at the same time. I would also feel worried because there are many tsunamis and earthquakes in Japan. But the good thing is that the workers there are very nice and do things seriously and are never lazy.

I would keep in contact with her even if we have been separated. I would visit twice a year so our relationship would always stay strong in our heart. My cousin already lives in Canada and I visit them twice a year, too.

But, I've seldom planned or brainstormed about moving abroad myself. I love Hong Kong like I love my friends, and I would never want to be separated from them.

P6 Meredith

If my best friend emigrated abroad, I would feel bored because they couldn't play with me, and I would be sad, too, because we could not see each other for a long time. We could just use the phone to talk to each other.

But I would be happy too, because then my parents and I could go visit him. He could teach us all about the customs of his country and we could play in his new country for many days.

If my best friend immigrated abroad, I hope he will make many new friends and have a great big new house. And I hope he will never forget me and our other classmates.

P6 Nathaniel

P4 Fantasy Map Drawing and Writing:

(Side 2)

There is a relaxing beach on my heart-shaped island.

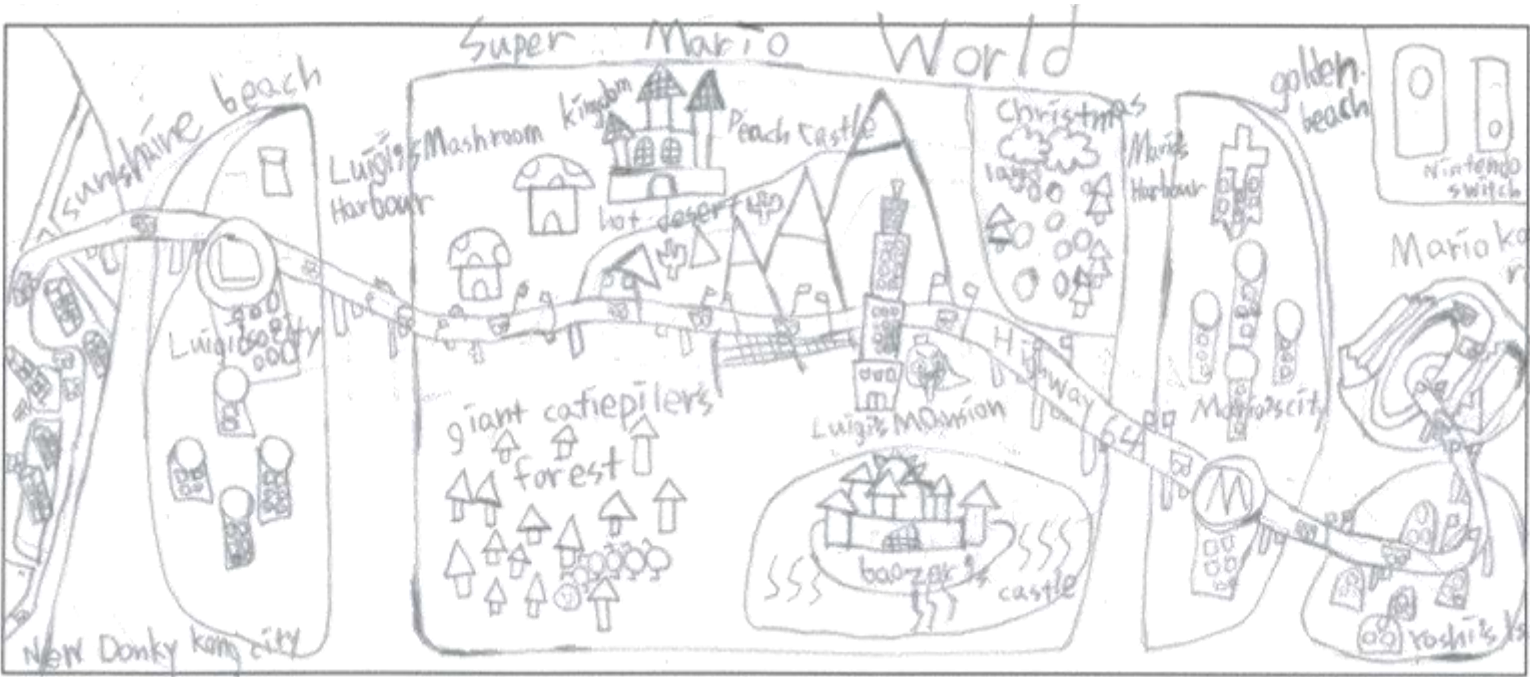

People can see many fish.

There is a beautiful garden where people can smell sweet roses, and a chocolate river to taste some chocolate milk.

There is also a cartoon zombie house on my island. People can hug the zombies.

-P4 Hazel

This is ‘Super Mario World’. The islands are shaped like a Switch.

New Donkey Kong City is a beautiful city with many buildings. Mushroom Kingdom has some mushroom houses and a castle named Peach Castle. There is also a scary place called Luigi’s Mansion. There are many Boos (ghosts) there, so it is very scary.

-P4 Kartik
